

Parking has changed. Please bare with us during construction.

Attention Students

Until further notice the parking area shown to the left in white is a construction zone and will not be available for parking.

A temporary parking area has been set up in the rear of the Nashville State Community College parking lot.

Shown to the left outlined in yellow this area will be available to you until construction is complete on the TCAT Nashville campus. Please follow the signs to this area.

We appreciate your patience and cooperation during this exciting time of growth on our campus.
